

CAB INDEX VOLUME 69

Aboriginal Health: An Overview Max Kamien reviews developments in health care provision for Aboriginal Australians; pics, table; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.11-17.

Aborigines see also Sharing the Land (Book Review).

After the Cold War: Regional Security in Eastern Asia Russell Trood reviews the new security arrangements in East Asia and the prospects for stability in the region; map, pic; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.4-12.

Aid and Third World Development Michael Burgess raises a number of concerns about the ideological influences and practices of the more radical non-government organisations active in the third world; pics; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.21-27.

Antarctic Resources: Future Challenges John Wells reports on the pressures facing the Antarctic Treaty regime due to demands to exploit its mineral resources; pics, map, table; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.16-24.

Australia and Japan: Banking on the 'Constructive Partnership' Purnendra Jain and Donna Weeks review Japanese involvement in Australia and argue that a 'constructive partnership' will be to the advantage of both countries; pics, cartoon; Vol.69:9, February 1993; pp.13-19.

Australian Aid to Papua New Guinea Ariane Rummary offers a critique of Australian aid policy and priorities in PNG; pics; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.13-20.

Australian Politics: New Life on the Left? Frank Stilwell discusses the background, problems and prospects for the non-Labor left in Australia; pics, cartoons; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.10-16.

Australia's Overseas Aid Program Stephen Sherlock provides a comprehensive review of Australia's aid program, including the debates and current issues in Australian aid policy; pics, tables, figures; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.11-20.

British Politics in the Age of Major Jeff Archer undertakes a wide-ranging and slightly polemical analysis of British politics today; pics; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.4-10.

Capital Punishment and the American Political Agenda Dennis Phillips finds evidence of politicisation of the US Supreme Court on the issue of the death penalty; pics, table; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.13-21.

China see New Nuclear Arms Race; On the Dark Side of Heaven (Book Review).

Cuba: Prospects for the 1990s Geralyn Pye examines Cuba's attempts to save its socialist revolution; pics; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.18-26.

The Earth Summit and the Ethics of Sustainable Development Aidan Davison and Ian Barns examine the detail of the 'Earth Charter' to be considered at the UN Conference on Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro; pics, cartoons; Vol.69:1, June 1992; pp.4-12.

East Timor: A war with no winners Keith Suter reviews the history and players in the long and unwinnable war over East Timor; pics; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.4-10.

Economics see Fightback and the GST; Latin America's Economies; South African Society and Economy; Implications for Australian Trade (CN); Transforming the Myth of Economics (BR).

Environment see Earth Summit; Green Politics; Management of Coastal Resources.

Federal Election see Coming from Behind: Underdog Polls, Underdog Parties (Current Note).

Fightback and the GST: An Economic Analysis Elizabeth Savage draws on theoretical analysis to demonstrate that Fightback's GST program is not as economically rationalist as it is portrayed; cartoon; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.4-10.

Germany: The Contradictions of Success Rick Kuhn questions whether in the wake of reunification Germany can regain its post-war stability; pics, map; Vol.69:4, September 1992; pp.11-20.

Green Politics: Lessons from Tasmania's Labor-Green Accord, 1989-1991 P.R. Hay and Robyn Eckersley report on the experiences of the short-lived Labor-Green Accord and identify its limitations; pics; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.10-15.

India see New Nuclear Arms Race; Crisis in India (Current Note).

Islam in Indonesian Politics Steven Drakeley examines the role and political significance of Islam in Australia's nearest and largest neighbour; pics; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.4-12.

Islam see also Women and Islam.

Japan: In Search of a Global and Regional Role Aurelia George examines the prospects for and restraints on an expanded role for Japan in the post-Cold War world; pic; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.13-16.

Japan see also Australia and Japan: Banking on the 'Constructive Partnership'.

The Korean Peninsula: Conflict or Peace? Mohan Malik examines this relic of the Cold War and assesses the possibilities for negotiated or violent reunification; pics; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.4-12.

Language Options for Australians William W. Bostock reviews the second language options available to English-speaking Australians and attempts to give answers to questions asked by intending students; pics, tables; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.17-25.

Latin America's Economies Peter Ross and James R. Levy examine what has happened in the economies of Latin America in the last few years and assess their longer term prospects; pics, map; Vol.69:4, September 1992; pp.21-28.

The Liberals since Fraser: A Study of Failure? Scott Prasser and Mark Neylan review the political performance of the Liberal Party over the last decade; pics, tables; Vol.69:1, June 1992; pp.13-19.

The Management of Coastal Resources: A Job for the Commonwealth? Colin Hunt reports on the need for improved coastal management and assesses some possible options; pics, maps; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.18-25.

Media see Newspaper Ownership and the Australian Print Media Inquiry

The New Nuclear Arms Race? Sandy Gordon speculates on the dynamics of a 'new' arms race between threshold nuclear powers like India and China, and reviews the effects in the region of the pressure for emerging powers to 'go nuclear'; pics; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.21-27.

Newspaper Ownership and the Australian Print Media Inquiry Allan Brown reviews the economics and structure of the newspaper industry in Australia, and examines the findings and recommendations of the Print Media Inquiry; pics, tables; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.11-20.

Pakistan and the USA: A changing relationship in a changing world Chitra Sudarshan assesses the implications for democracy in Pakistan and the power base of the military as Pakistan-US relations change; pics, cartoon; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.21-26.

Papua New Guinea see Australian Aid to Papua New Guinea.

Philosophy at School San MacColl reviews the benefits of introducing philosophy to children in school, the earlier the better; pics; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.4-9.

CAB INDEX VOLUME 69

Aboriginal Health: An Overview Max Kamien reviews developments in health care provision for Aboriginal Australians; pics, table; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.11-17.

Aborigines see also Sharing the Land (Book Review).

After the Cold War: Regional Security in Eastern Asia Russell Trood reviews the new security arrangements in East Asia and the prospects for stability in the region; map, pic; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.4-12.

Aid and Third World Development Michael Burgess raises a number of concerns about the ideological influences and practices of the more radical non-government organisations active in the third world; pics; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.21-27.

Antarctic Resources: Future Challenges John Wells reports on the pressures facing the Antarctic Treaty regime due to demands to exploit its mineral resources; pics, map, table; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.16-24.

Australia and Japan: Banking on the 'Constructive Partnership' Purnendra Jain and Donna Weeks review Japanese involvement in Australia and argue that a 'constructive partnership' will be to the advantage of both countries; pics, cartoon; Vol.69:9, February 1993; pp.13-19.

Australian Aid to Papua New Guinea Ariane Rummary offers a critique of Australian aid policy and priorities in PNG; pics; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.13-20.

Australian Politics: New Life on the Left? Frank Stilwell discusses the background, problems and prospects for the non-Labor left in Australia; pics, cartoons; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.10-16.

Australia's Overseas Aid Program Stephen Sherlock provides a comprehensive review of Australia's aid program, including the debates and current issues in Australian aid policy; pics, tables, figures; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.11-20.

British Politics in the Age of Major Jeff Archer undertakes a wide-ranging and slightly polemical analysis of British politics today; pics; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.4-10.

Capital Punishment and the American Political Agenda Dennis Phillips finds evidence of politicisation of the US Supreme Court on the issue of the death penalty; pics, table; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.13-21.

China see New Nuclear Arms Race; On the Dark Side of Heaven (Book Review).

Cuba: Prospects for the 1990s Geralyn Pye examines Cuba's attempts to save its socialist revolution; pics; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.18-26.

The Earth Summit and the Ethics of Sustainable Development Aidan Davison and Ian Barns examine the detail of the 'Earth Charter' to be considered at the UN Conference on Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro; pics, cartoons; Vol.69:1, June 1992; pp.4-12.

East Timor: A war with no winners Keith Suter reviews the history and players in the long and unwinnable war over East Timor; pics; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.4-10.

Economics see Fightback and the GST; Latin America's Economies; South African Society and Economy; Implications for Australian Trade (CN); Transforming the Myth of Economics (BR).

Environment see Earth Summit; Green Politics; Management of Coastal Resources.

Federal Election see Coming from Behind: Underdog Polls, Underdog Parties (Current Note).

Fightback and the GST: An Economic Analysis Elizabeth Savage draws on theoretical analysis to demonstrate that Fightback's GST program is not as economically rationalist as it is portrayed; cartoon; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.4-10.

Germany: The Contradictions of Success Rick Kuhn questions whether in the wake of reunification Germany can regain its post-war stability; pics, map; Vol.69:4, September 1992; pp.11-20.

Green Politics: Lessons from Tasmania's Labor-Green Accord, 1989-1991 P.R. Hay and Robyn Eckersley report on the experiences of the short-lived Labor-Green Accord and identify its limitations; pics; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.10-15.

India see New Nuclear Arms Race; Crisis in India (Current Note).

Islam in Indonesian Politics Steven Drakeley examines the role and political significance of Islam in Australia's nearest and largest neighbour; pics; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.4-12.

Islam see also Women and Islam.

Japan: In Search of a Global and Regional Role Aurelia George examines the prospects for and restraints on an expanded role for Japan in the post-Cold War world; pic; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.13-16.

Japan see also Australia and Japan: Banking on the 'Constructive Partnership'.

The Korean Peninsula: Conflict or Peace? Mohan Malik examines this relic of the Cold War and assesses the possibilities for negotiated or violent reunification; pics; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.4-12.

Language Options for Australians William W. Bostock reviews the second language options available to English-speaking Australians and attempts to give answers to questions asked by intending students; pics, tables; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.17-25.

Latin America's Economies Peter Ross and James R. Levy examine what has happened in the economies of Latin America in the last few years and assess their longer term prospects; pics, map; Vol.69:4, September 1992; pp.21-28.

The Liberals since Fraser: A Study of Failure? Scott Prasser and Mark Neylan review the political performance of the Liberal Party over the last decade; pics, tables; Vol.69:1, June 1992; pp.13-19.

The Management of Coastal Resources: A Job for the Commonwealth? Colin Hunt reports on the need for improved coastal management and assesses some possible options; pics, maps; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.18-25.

Media see Newspaper Ownership and the Australian Print Media Inquiry

The New Nuclear Arms Race? Sandy Gordon speculates on the dynamics of a 'new' arms race between threshold nuclear powers like India and China, and reviews the effects in the region of the pressure for emerging powers to 'go nuclear'; pics; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.21-27.

Newspaper Ownership and the Australian Print Media Inquiry Allan Brown reviews the economics and structure of the newspaper industry in Australia, and examines the findings and recommendations of the Print Media Inquiry; pics, tables; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.11-20.

Pakistan and the USA: A changing relationship in a changing world Chitra Sudarshan assesses the implications for democracy in Pakistan and the power base of the military as Pakistan-US relations change; pics, cartoon; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.21-26.

Papua New Guinea see Australian Aid to Papua New Guinea.

Philosophy at School San MacColl reviews the benefits of introducing philosophy to children in school, the earlier the better; pics; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.4-9.

Political Stability, Independents and the Two Party System Graham Maddox uses the recent record of independents to assess the importance for democracy of party government; pic, cartoon; Vol.69:1, June 1992; pp.20-27.

Public Enterprise in an Age of Privatisation Roger Wattenhall reviews the progress of privatisation and the survival prospects for public enterprise; cartoon; Vol.69:9, February 1993; pp.4-12.

Public Sector Reform in Queensland Peter Coaldrake reports on the public sector reforms which were stimulated by the Fitzgerald Inquiry and the election of the Goss government; pics, cartoon; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.22-27.

Public Service see also The Metherell Affair: Patronage and the Public Service (Current Note).

Republic of Australia? The Political Philosophy of Republicanism Wayne Cristaudo delves into the history and political philosophy of republicanism; pics; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.4-9.

Somalia see Crisis in Somalia (Current Note); The United Nations in Somalia (Current Note).

South African Society and Economy David Dorward provides a background briefing on major social and economic indicators which reveal the extent of the problems facing South Africa; pics, figures; Vol.69:9, February 1993; pp.20-28.

Taiwan: A new Role in the Asia-Pacific Region Gary Klintworth focusses on Taiwan's economic and strategic ascendancy and its growing ties with China; pic, table; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.17-26.

United Nations see Earth Summit; Crisis in Somalia (Current Note); The United Nations in Somalia (Current Note).

The US Presidential Election Ernie Chaples explains the American presidential election system and reviews the marathon battle for electoral votes; pics, tables; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.4-10.

USA see also Capital Punishment and the American Political Agenda; Pakistan and the USA.

Women and Islam Rosie Bruce examines the role assigned women by Islamic doctrine and reviews some options for change; pics; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.11-17.

Women in Local Government Mark Neylan and Jacoba Brasch report on their research into political representation by women in local government in Australia; pic, tables; Vol.69:4, September 1992, pp.4-10.

Women see also Superannuation: Some Implications for Women (Current Note); Testosterone Rules, OK (Book Review).

Current Notes

Coming from Behind: Underdog Polls, Underdog Parties Murray Goot reviews the public opinion polls which drove much of the speculation in the lead-up to the 13 March federal election; table; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.25-27.

Crisis in India Debesh Bhattacharya recounts the political causes and consequences of the sectarian violence which has swept the Indian sub-continent recently; Vol.69:9, February 1993; p.29.

Crisis in Somalia David Dorward argues that the plight of the Somali people is a chilling example of the failure of the United Nations and the 'new world order'; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.28-29.

Implications for Australian Trade of the Recession in Japan H.S. Kehal examines the likely effect of the recession in Japan on the pattern of trade between Australia and our biggest export customer; tables, figures; Vol.69:1, June 1992; pp.28-29.

The Metherell Affair: Patronage and the Public Service Barbara Page argues that the abolition of the NSW Public Service Board was more significant to the demise of Greiner and Moore than the establishment of the ICAC; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.27-28.

The Queensland Election Scott Prasser reviews the Queensland election results in terms of their significance for the non-Labor parties; pics, table, cartoons; Vol.69:5, October 1992; pp.26-28.

Remembering Russia Phillip Deery reviews Russia's efforts to reclaim its destiny; cartoon; Vol.69:4, September 1992; pp.29-31.

A Strong Australia? Gary Klintworth comments on the regional security environment as perceived by the Federal Opposition in their recently issued paper on defence; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.27-29.

Superannuation: Some Implications for Women Sharon Winocur and Linda Rosenman argue that the working patterns and family responsibilities of most women limit their access to superannuation; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.28-29.

The United Nations in Somalia: Prospects for Humanitarian Intervention Bob Howard questions the value of the United Nations operation in Somalia; Vol.69:12, May 1993; p.28.

The 1992 Victorian Election: Emphatically Ending the Labor Decade Brian Costar and Nick Economou review the opinion polls and election results which brought Jeff Kennett to power; pics, figures; Vol.69:7, December 1992; pp.27-31.

Western Australian Election 1993 David Black and Harry Phillips report on the demise of the WA Labor government after ten years in office; pics, tables; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.26-29.

Book Reviews

Australian Politics: The End of Certainty? Christina Nicholson reviews Menzies to Keating and The End of Certainty, two books which provide a window on political life in Canberra; Vol.69:9, February 1993; pp.30-31.

The End of History? Wayne Cristaudo finds enduring and important insights in Francis Fukuyama's The End of History and the Last Man; Vol.69:3, August 1992; pp.29-31.

On the Dark Side of Heaven Rosita Holenbergh is fascinated by Frank Dikötter's discourse on Chinese variants of racism; Vol.69:12, May 1993; pp.29-31.

Politics in Fiji Pal Ahluwalia reviews the analysis by Stephanie Lawson of Fiji's foray into democratic politics; Vol.69:6, November 1992; pp.30-31.

Politics of Persuasion? Doug McEachern reviews Actions Speak, edited by Baldry and Vinson, and The Greening of the Red by Graham Dunkley; Vol.69:5, October 1992, pp.29-30.

Sharing the Land? Stephanie Jarrett reviews Frank Brennan on Aboriginal land rights and the need for black and white Australians to reach agreement on sharing the country; Vol.69:2, July 1992; pp.30-31.

South Pacific Foreign Policy Pal Ahluwalia decides that Steve Hoadley's handbook is handy for travellers and students; Vol.69:10, March 1993; pp.30-31.

Testosterone Rules, OK? Lenore Coltheart reviews Janine Haines' account of a century of women in Australian politics, Suffrage to Suffrance; Vol.69:8, January 1993; pp.30-31.

Transforming the Myth of Economics Wesley Phoa exposes the myths by which economics claims to be a 'science' and policies based on its 'proofs' to be legitimate; Vol.69:11, April 1993; pp.28-31.